2022_07_04 update
Version 002

Material:

- 1) 18 countries Flashcards without the country name.
- 2) A6 or A5 private card for the teacher with how to say « hello » in all the selected countries.
- 3) The Bingo country quiz grid

A/ Students have to write the countries' names in the grid (3 min)

B/ The teacher's role before the first « Bingo » happens:

- 1) Teacher says « Hej! », asks the students to rise their hands if they know what country it is.

Case 1: If the students guessed it was « sweden », show them the flag and write it on the board, it's the first country;
Case 2: If they are not able to give the right answer, show the flag and drill them again, if they still don't know, say the country name and write it on the board, it's the first country.

- 2) Do this until a student (or a group of student) have a « Bingo ». If only one student is « Bingo » he (she) 's the winner. If it's a group of students, they have to JANKEN to select the winner.

C/ The winner is the MC!

- 1) called by the teacher, the winner comes in the front of the class and write the name of the previous country, because it the one that gave him a bingo, it is his first « mission », then, he/she says the « hello word » of the next country.

Case 1: If the students guessed, the winner show them the flag, it's the next country;
Case 2: If they are not able to give the right answer, the winner shows the flag and drill them again, if they still don't know, the winner says the country's name, it's the next country.

D/ If more than one student have a bingo, JANKEN to select the next MC.

E/ Continue with 12 to 14 Countries.
